

THE JOURNAL OF CORPORATION LAW

Volume 35

Fall 2009

Number 1

INSTITUTE FOR LAW AND ECONOMIC POLICY SYMPOSIUM: COMPENSATION OF PLAINTIFFS IN MASS SECURITIES LITIGATION

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Regulating Broker–Dealers and Investment Advisers: Demarcation or Harmonization?
.....Elisse B. Walter 1

ARTICLES

Estimating Financial Fraud Damages with Response Coefficients
.....Esther Bruegger & Frederick C. Dunbar 11

Personal Jurisdiction over Foreign Directors in Cross-Border Securities Litigation
.....Hannah L. Buxbaum 71

Securities Litigation and the Housing Market Downturn
.....Allen Ferrell & Atanu Saha 97

Distribution of Funds in Class Actions—Claims Administration
.....Francis E. McGovern 123

Judging Admissibility*Michael J. Saks* 135

Proper Event Study Analysis in Securities Litigation*Frank Torchio* 159

COMMENTS AND RESPONSES

Reputational Damages in Securities Litigation*Barbara Black* 169

Compared to What? Econometric Evidence and the Counterfactual Difficulty
.....Donald C. Langevoort 183

Coming to Terms with Loss Causation After Dura: A Response to Professors Partnoy,
Ferrell, and Saha.....Steven J. Toll 189

NOTES

Ratings Recall: Will New Reform Proposals Make Lasting Impact?
.....Paul J. Justensen 193

Direct Harm, Special Injury, or Duty Owed: Which Test Allows for the Most Shareholder
Success in Direct Shareholder Litigation?Elizabeth J. Thompson 215